SUMMARY

Full-stack RoR developer with a value for collaboration and a love for connecting with people from diverse backgrounds. Excels in remote work settings and thrives in fast-paced environments. Fluency in multiple languages, frameworks, and technologies such as JavaScript, React, Ruby, Ruby on Rails, and Postgresql enables me to handle any challenge easily. Passionate about learning and constantly exploring new ideas to grow skills and share knowledge with others. Excited to join a dynamic team and contribute to business success through expertise and an innovative mindset.
